THE 1960 TORCH

HAZELWOOD HIGH SCHOOL

St. Louis County, Mo.

Volume 6

THE TORCH

LOOKS INSIDE HAZELWOOD

The 1959-60 Hazelwood year has been a year of change—not the physical changes that those on the outside can recognize easily, but the changes that we, the students, feel when we are inside the building, the classroom, the rotunda, the gymnasium, the cafeteria, the office.

We are experiencing a deep and thrilling pride in our school and a loyalty to each other that we have not known in Hazelwood's brief history. Outside we have grown taller and older. Inside we have matured emotionally and mentally.

From the outside, we still see the same attractive yellow brick building sprawling over a vast undeveloped acreage. Inside, we are developing a unified school spirit and a desire to be recognized as Hazelwood students with identities of our own.

Inside and outside we want to be Hazelwood personalities with pride in our scholastic achievements, pride in our good sportsmanship, and pride in our outstanding citizenship.

With the cooperation of administrators, faculty, and students, we know that we will achieve these goals—INSIDE HAZELWOOD.

WE RAISE THE FLAG

AND INSIDE HAZELWOOD

Classes are being assembled, homework is being compared, previous night's dates are being discussed, absence and tardy excuses are being explained, and a new school day is under way.

In the chorus room, a new Hazelwood Fight Song is being rehearsed. Arranged by Mr. William A. Lewis, the peppy and rousing words are heard whenever Hazelwood fans gather to cheer their team on to victory.

To Hazelwood, the school we love, we sing a song of praise;
Tell of her many vict'ries won, and high her banner raise.
Our loyalty and courage true will always stand the test,
And prove in every word and deed that we shall do our best.
For we're ready to fight, hold the torch high and bright;
Fight for old Hazelwood!
Let our standards unfold. Onward! Go, black and gold;
And fight for Hazelwood!
For her honor and fame, and her glorious name
We will march on to victory.
So, fight, fight, with all your might;
All out for Hazelwood!

BEFORE WE GO INSIDE, LET'S VIEW HAZELWOOD FROM THE OUTSIDE

Designed for future expansion, Hazelwood offers more than can be seen from Highway 66. The expansive areas on each side and the rear can provide space for additional buildings, classrooms, playing areas, and bleachers. A parking space to the side and a circular drive in front of the school insure quiet and safety. TOP, A view from the football field behind the school. The tennis courts are at the left top of the picture. CENTER, Bleachers accommodating approximately 700 persons were built this past year. The cinder track separates them from the gridiron. BOTTOM, Students board buses parked in the private front drive.

THE ADMINISTRATION AND

WE LOOK TO OUR ADMINISTRATORS

SEATED: Clifford R. Kirby, Supt.; Robert F. Bischof; James Wehmer, Pres.; C. O. McDonald, Asst. Supt.; Harry C. Grannemann Jr., Treas.; Miss Viola Bentrup. STANDING: Howard F. Gamble, V. Pres.; Robert C. Bond; J. W. Hord; Sec.; Don O. Russell, Attorney; George Vancil, Asst. Supt.

Leadership is essential to advancement. Nothing measures up to service by these master workers. The Board of Education and Mr. Kirby are faced with the problem of increasing enrollment. More schools must be built and more facilities provided to cope with the anticipated influx of boys and girls. The total enrollment in the district is now 5070. The Board predicts that 6490 children will be enrolled in September, 1960, with 8307 registered in September, 1961. A senior high school, a newly completed junior high school, and five elementary schools are operating at capacity enrollments. Our administrators realize that education is a debt due from the present to future generations. Utilizing present facilities to offer the best in education and planning for the district's continued excellent rating are the administrators' main concerns.

MR. CLIFFORD R. KIRBY
Superintendent

FOR LEADERSHIP AND GUIDANCE

Serving his first year as principal at Hazelwood High School, Mr. Francis C. Huss, former head of St. Clair, Missouri High School, has earned the respect of his faculty and that of the student body by his practice of fairness, firmness, and consistency. His enthusiasm for every phase of school life and his contagious spirit of school loyalty have given the school a new vigor. He, too, has enrollment problems. The records show approximately 842 students registered this year, with an anticipated September, 1960 enrollment to exceed 1040. Knowing Mr. Huss, we become more and more confident that his administrative skill will maintain and increase Hazelwood's prestige among the leading high schools of our nation.

MR. FRANCIS C. HUSS
Principal
A.B., M.Ed.

MR. LAURENCE J. FUQUA
Assistant Principal
B.S., M.Ed.

To counsel, to plan, to remonstrate, to supervise—Mr. Laurence Fuqua's duties as assistant principal are varied and many. The path to his door is well worn. His warm interest in our every activity reveals him as a patient and understanding man, accustomed to working with young people.

MRS. MARY K. RANDOLPH
B.S., Business Education

MRS. JEANNETTE
GRUENEWALD

MRS. MARY K. RYMER
A.B., English, Drama, Speech,
Play Production

MR. RICHARD E. GAUVIN
B.A., M.Ed., English
Richard E. Gauvin

LANGUAGE ARTS SHARPEN

A "nose for news," an ability to write clear and compressed copy, result in informative and entertaining Hawk Talks.

With more emphasis being placed on English, by educators, business and professional people, four credits of English are now required for graduation. Small talk at a dinner table to interpretation of our foreign policy in an assembly of the United Nations depend upon our mastery of our language, written and spoken.

Spanish students are being assisted in their translations by Mr. Rauch. A second language is a social and professional asset.

In the speech class, Jerry Bryant is practicing thinking on his feet.

SKILLS OF COMMUNICATION

MRS. MAE McKINNEY
B.S., M.A., Civics, English

MR. ARTHUR A. BLACKMAN
A.B., English

MRS. MILDRED JARCHOW
A.B., M.A., English

Learning the mechanics of our language, Bill Meredith and Sue Heisel drill possessives at the blackboard.

Training in the dramatic arts develop poise and interpretive skills. Mrs. Rymer is rehearsing her junior play cast for "Meet Me in St. Louis."

MISS MARY E. STIRITZ
A.B., M.A., English, Latin

MR. RICHARD T. RAUCH
B.S., M.E., Spanish

MRS. CAROL DECKERT
A.B., Study Hall

A nation's language reflects its culture. Through the ages the language barrier has been a major deterrent to man's dream of a unified world. By studying a language we feel closer to the people who speak it, and in forming this bond of understanding we pave the way for peace.

LANGUAGE IS THE

Before the students swarm into the high school on opening day, the faculty has warmed up for the academic season with a three day workshop. Returning and new teachers are welcomed at a getting-to-know-you reception.

¿Habla Español? Parlez vous Français? Latine dicitisne? Tape recorders and records improve accents for Steve Newman and Carol Petty.

Day after day our cafeteria staff keeps the lunch line moving steadily and efficiently, serving approximately 144,000 meals annually.

MEMORY OF THE HUMAN RACE

A new light on knowledge. Reference books, readers guides, accurate card catalogues supplement the aid of the librarian in helping Carol Dobbins.

MRS. HELEN M. BRIDGEMAN
B.J., English, Journalism

MRS. ROSE K. DEAN
A.B., M.S., English, French

*Love and
Sincerely,
A. Parks*

MRS. AGATHA W. PARKS
B.S.Ed., M.A., L.S., Librarian

THE SYMMETRIC PRINCIPLES OF

Using the slide rule is a technique being demonstrated by Margie Povis. The challenge of advanced mathematics is being accepted by the modern young woman as well as the young man.

MR. I. L. Zohner
B.S., M.A., Algebra

Mathematics is a staircase that we climb blindly under the guidance of our teachers. At each step, that which we have passed becomes a little clearer, and when the study ends, the ascent assumes a meaning as a whole and forms that orderly pattern that is the essence of mathematics. The Mathematics Department offers courses at all levels from the eighth to the twelfth grades. An activated interest by the high school student in mathematics may well result in the United States continued leadership in world events.

Excuses! Excuses! Tardiness, absence. A story must be told and a semblance of truth established in this frequently crowded office.

MR. H. R. HAYS
B.S., M.A., Science, Mathematics

MATHEMATICAL TRUTH IS UNIVERSAL

MR. SIDNEY PHILLIPS
B.S.Ed., M.E., Algebra, Plane
Geometry

MR. JOHN G. WEBER
B.S.Ed., Trigonometry, Geometry, Algebra

MRS. VIRGINIA ULERY
A.B., Mathematics

Instructed by Mr. Weber, Ray Crain is surveying the field behind the school. Advanced mathematics offer this pre-engineering training.

Faculty members use their free hour for preparation, paper grading, and relaxing. Mrs. Rymer and Mrs. Ulery stop for that coffee break.

Observing plants and animals is an exciting activity in biology classes. Here Steve Meyer and Raye Hillibrandt are playing nursemaids to the parakeet.

MR. JOHN P. SHADRACH
B.S.Ed., M.E., Biology

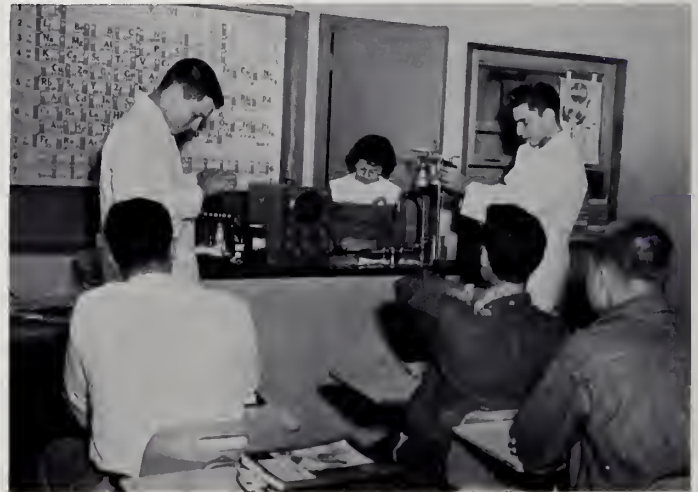

MR. JOHN O'HARA
B.S., M.A., Physics, Chemistry

YOUNG SCIENTISTS EXPLORE THE MYSTERIES OF OUR WORLD

The great discoveries and progress of science from countless generations accumulate, layer on layer, as each era gives its contributions. Through our heritage of knowledge, we and all our successors will lead the way to a wiser and better world, through science.

Chemistry students perform experiments to prepare themselves for this modern atomic world.

The study of physics opens up a brand-new vista of missiles, satellites, rockets, and man-made moons.

MR. PAUL G. WRIGHT
B.S., M.S., General Science

Paul G. Wright

A day dream now and then, or is it contemplation for Norm Pataky while Nancy Nyflot, Emilee Smith, and Harry Snyder study industriously?

A storehouse of power is this little room behind the chemistry laboratory. Proper combinations and formulas will prevent that unexpected trip to outer space.

Sharon Dean takes the baby alligator from its cage in the biology room while Ellen Dimitry stands by to help if necessary.

FINE ARTS STUDENTS DEVELOP TALENTS,

MRS. NANCY McCALL
B.S. Ed., Art

Fine Arts students create traditional scenes on office windows.

Hazelwood's Art Department prepares students for careers in the visual arts, painting, ceramics, fashion designing, advertising, commercial art. The majority of our students, however, do not take art for its future possibilities, but because it is fun and a means of self-expression.

The finishing touches are being made to a cleverly conceived and decorative planter by Sandra Bauman.

LEARN TO APPRECIATE BEAUTY

A little paint here, there, and in the right places may produce a masterpiece of line, balance, and color. Kathy Hessler, Judy Schroeder, Carol Underwood, and Alice Tecklenburg above, are students of ability and originality.

MRS. JEANNE SNOVER
B.S.Ed., Art

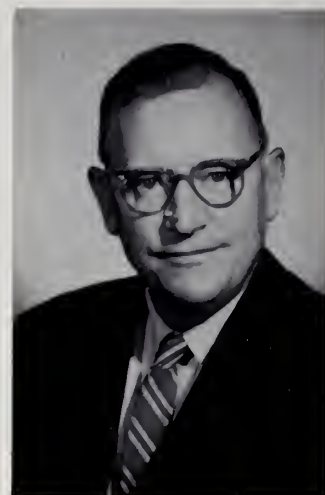

It's fun to splash the paints around, but Wayne Herrington knows clean-up time always follows.

Here are the drummers of the Band—Jerry Ryan, Mike Webb, and Ronald Farnsworth as they beat out the rhythm for the Hazelwood Fight Song.

MR. SALVATOR PIAZZA
B.Mus.Ed., M.A., Band

MR. WILLIAM A. LEWIS
B.Mus., M.Mus., Allied Arts,
Chorus, Fundamentals of Music

*Best Wishes!
Hollers*

MELODY, RHYTHM, MUSIC APPRECIATION, KEYNOTES IN MUSIC DEPARTMENT

Good music is a luxury we can all afford. The choruses and band introduce aspiring musicians to the thrills of harmonizing together.

A little rock-'n-roll like a beat, man, is jived together by the Mellotones.

Vocal technique, voice development, voice control, and tone development are taught in our chorus classes. Approximately 130 boys and girls sang in our mixed chorus at the Christmas program. New robes were purchased this year, and have greatly enhanced the appearance of the chorus.

CREATIVE MINDS FIND ENJOYMENT IN MUSIC

Vocal ensembles or old-fashioned, harmony sessions are accompanied by our organist and pianist, Mr. Lewis.

Choosing a Bell Lyre as her instrument, Arleen Westerfeld practices solo and with the band.

MISS DONNA LITRELL
B.S.Bus.Ed., Commerce

Efficient noises identify the commercial department. By learning typing, shorthand, and other allied commercial subjects, these students will be better prepared for the business and professional world.

MR. JAMES E. HOLLINSEED
B.S.Ed., Commerce

SOME STUDENTS EYE THE BUSINESS WORLD

MISS JOAN LIBLA
B.S.Ed., Commerce

Richard Crowley learns the proper way to clean a typewriter in Mr. Hollinseed's class.

Regardless of their choice of vocation, almost all girls are homemakers sooner or later. Designing and sewing their own clothes give Myra Heimowitz and Sandy Miller practical experience for the future.

HOMEMAKERS LEARN THE TRICKS OF THEIR TRADE

In today's business world, the wife plays an important role in her husband's success. She must be a good cook, a gracious hostess. Courtesy, charm, and poise are practiced in our home economics classes.

MRS. EDRIE RHOADS
B.S.Ed., Home Economics

MRS. EDNA R. HUMPHREY
B.S., Voc. Home Economics,
Home Economics

Through participation in sports, our boys learn to work and play together and to accept their penalties for their mistakes. The freshman team above doesn't look too happy about what's happening on the field, but that's part of the game.

MISS MARY K. CORNISH
B.S.Ed., M.S., Physical Education

MR. FRANK REICH
B.S.Ed., Physical Education

MR. ROY A. TANNER
B.S., M.S., Physical Education.

MISS ELINOR L. ALGER
B.S.Ed., Physical Education

WE ENJOY SPORTS FOR HEALTH AND FUN

*Best of luck this year Pam
Mrs. Prunster*

Kenny Byrd finds being propelled across the gym floor by Ed Thacker requires a good working set of arm muscles.

Last fall our athletic girls topped, sliced, hooked, and occasionally hit that little white ball under the supervision of Miss Cornish, a golfing enthusiast with an enviable record of her own.

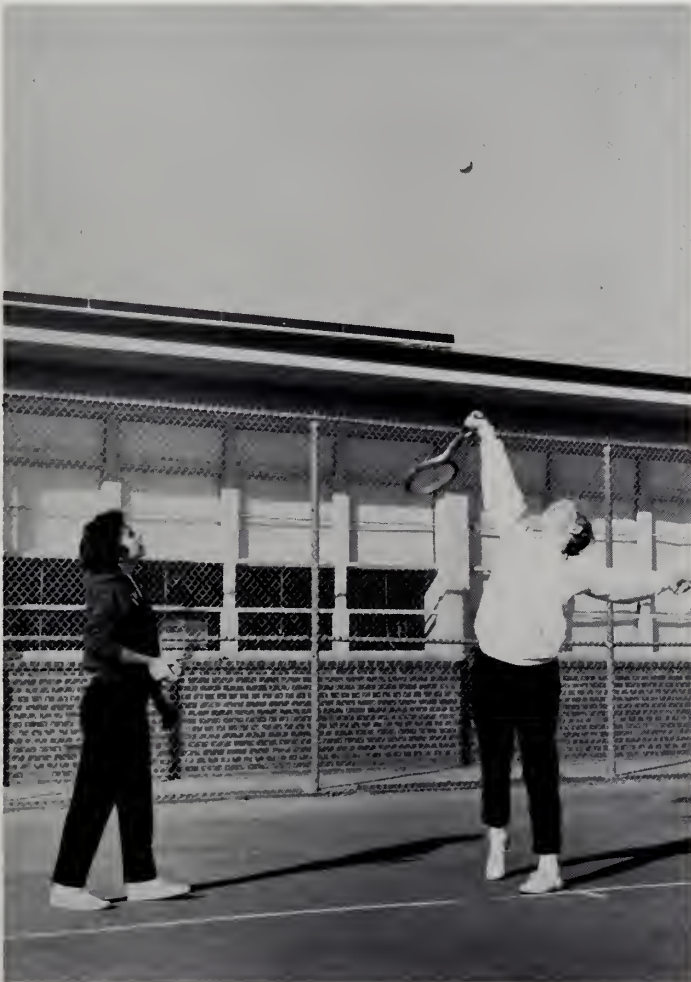

MR. DALE E. HENNER
B.S., M.A., Physical Education.

MISS SUE MAGEL
B.S.Ed., Physical Education

SOUND BODIES BUILD ALERT MINDS

Miss Alger watches as Mary Jury, with good tennis form, is sure to return that serve.

The boys moan and groan over those cottin'-pickin' calisthenics, but muscles are toned and developed and the body becomes more fit for those fast-paced games ahead.

WE KNOW THE FUTURE BY UNDERSTANDING THE PAST AND PRESENT

MISS LENORE B. HITT
B.S.Ed., Am. History, Sociology, Family Relations, Economics, Social Psychology

MR. CLAUDE E. LIBLA
B.S.Ed., Citizenship

MR. JOHN STAPLETON
B.S., M.A., History

In the American history class, Cliff Davies and Barb Lindeman are pointing out the location of a French and Indian War battle.

MR. BERNARD DAWKINS
B.A., Missouri History, Civics

OUR COUNSELORS ARE OUR FRIENDS AND CONFIDENTS

*Lots of Luck
Amy Holmes*

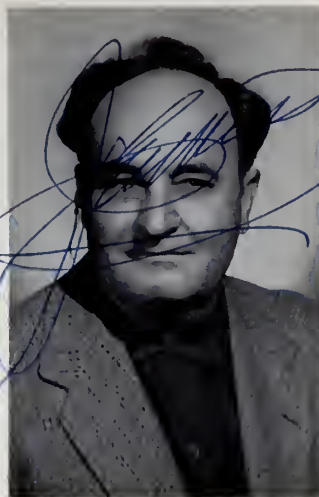

Good health promotes good school citizenship. Joyce Becker's height, weight, hearing, sight are all checked by the school nurse.

Counseling requires more than scheduling classes and giving tests. It includes directing ability and planning for future vocations and college applications. Personal problems of finances, parents, friends, and social life are also discussed in counselor-student relationship at Hazelwood. Records of students progress are kept up to date for parents, college registrars, and future employers.

Students take Iowa Psychological Tests to determine college aptitudes.

MR. PAUL JENKINS
B.S., M.A., Counselor

MRS. AMY HOLMES

STUDENTS PREPARE FOR VOCATIONS AND HOME IN INDUSTRIAL ARTS CLASSES

Don Crites works on a drafting project without which the engineer cannot do his job.

MR. CARL O. RODERY
B.S.Ed., M.Ed., Industrial Arts

MR. ALLEN GOODRIDGE
B.S., M.A., Electricity, General
Metals, Drafting

For every thinker there must be technicians who put these thoughts to practical use. The wheels of industry turn night and day, and the task of educating students in the industrial arts is truly a race against time.

MR. HAROLD PRIESS
A.B., B.S., M.E., Industrial Arts

MR. JAMES W. BOWMAN
B.S.Ed., Driver's Training

"Do-it-yourself" has come into its own, whether it be smoothing a rough cabinet top or repairing the electric iron. Sandy Keller gets the know-how in Home Mechanics.

TORCH SENIOR HI-LIGHTS

Nancy Nyflot and Davis Morgan

Senior officers, Davis Morgan, Joan Driemeier, Jerre Meier, and Nancy Nyflot observe one of the many school activities from the school balcony.

To tell the inside story of the 1960 Senior Class, one must go back to 1955 when approximately 100 eighth graders enrolled in the Junior High School section of Hazelwood High School. The growth of the entire Hazelwood district is reflected in the present size of that class whose 144 members are being graduated.

For five years these young people have worked, studied, and played together. Many of them met for the first time at a Get-Acquainted Party while they were in the eighth grade. Friendships were made that continued in the freshman year when they enjoyed their first big formal dance, "Star Dust." Even as sophomores, they had to anticipate the prom and put money-making projects into action. So, along with the fun and study, work had to be done. Operation-Bake Sale started. On the athletic side of the picture, they were proud of the second place their Sophomore B Basketball Team captured in the North County Conference tournament. Finally that Junior year—that year of money, money, money, and work, work, work for that one wonderful night, the Junior-Senior Prom. Proud and excited, they entertained their seniors on an enchanted South Pacific Island, Bali Hai. More bake sales, candy sales, a bus wash, the concession stand, and the junior play, One Foot in Heaven—they were working and having fun together.

Graduation marks finis to the inside story of the members of the 1960 Class. They are glad the five chapters have been written. They promise a sequel—more exciting and more rewarding!

BEING A SENIOR IS FUN

Sharpies, eh what? Roger Osborn, Rosanne Tucker, Emilie Smith, and Norm Pataky did the Seniors proud on "Dress-up Day."

If the way to a man's heart is through his stomach, men, beware! Linda Stewart, winner of Betty Crocker's Home-making Award, is setting a trap. Don't say we didn't warn you, boys.

All right, Ben, exhale! As Ben Melcher is being measured for his cap and gown, Butch Hilleman and Sylvester Rafferty await their turns to show off that chest expansion.

Anyone's entitled to a little cat nap, especially after four years of hard struggle in this institution of learning. At least, so thinks Craig Nelson.

"Deadline Tuesday" again, and still no clever, new, or original way of presenting the news. Prom reporters Joan Driemeier and Denny Butts console themselves with the thought that the other Prom reporters must face Tuesday too.

JUNIORS

Class Officers

President—Jim Haynie

Vice President—George Gerling

Secretary—Linda Vaughan

Treasurer—Lewis Prange

The seniors may be sure that they are leaving Hazelwood High School in good hands next year, the hands of this year's juniors. To expedite the important business of the class, a Junior Executive Council was inaugurated this past year. Project Buzz Book was a success with more than 400 copies being sold. The climax of every junior's year is the Prom. This year the Aqua Fantasy was especially beautiful with the under-water theme skillfully providing an atmosphere of deep-sea fascination and mystery.

Thanks, Steve Newman, for your support. You'll never regret purchasing your Torch from Karen Doza, who's doing her best to reach that sales goal.

JUNIORS SEEM TO HAVE SO MUCH TO DO

You're right. This is only a rehearsal. The Junior play was quite a success and worth every bit of effort.

Here's a man with a problem. Jerry Ryan, are you studying the composition of the yearbook, or testing your ability as a beauty judge? Jerry has been selected as the 1961 Torch editor.

Which style do you think the class will like best? This is the question the members of the ring committee asked themselves as they selected the three major ring designs to be presented to the class.

Mom never had it so good. We're sure Judy Crawford and many others have heard this from their parents many times as the school bus delivers them to the door.

Karen Eckert, Barbara Boyer, and Shirley Horn, having read all the interesting books in the Bookmobile, have decided to visit their friend Mrs. Parks for further literature.

SOPHOMORES

Class Officers

President—Mike Krenski

Vice President—Nancy Niehaus

Secretary—Linda Shanks

Treasurer—Carol Underwood

Historian—Betty Valleroy

The term "sophomore" takes its meaning from the Greek word "wise." Our sophomores are a wise group; they have learned to avoid the pitfalls of the inexperienced freshmen and have become an integrated part of the school's academic and activity program. As a group they have continued their participation in the Hazelwood Hop a social program they initiated when they were in the eighth grade. Having learned to work together for the past three years, the transition to wise leadership in their junior year will be an easy one.

Career Day—A day when professions and job opportunities are explained by the masters. These students seem to be dreaming of better days ahead.

SOPHOMORES GET INTO THE SWING OF THINGS

Terry Stratmann and Pat Coleman seem to be enjoying their discussion. We're sure the subject of conversation was either history or math.

You Can't be a tenth of an inch off, Bob. Bob Baird is learning the fundamentals of woodworking and doing his best to be accurate.

Julius Caesar; Ah, these are the words close to the hearts of all sophomores. These boys seem to be putting their all into Caesar's immortal death scene. Please don't get carried away.

How was Jeff City, Mike? The smile on Mike Park's face seems to indicate the Sophomore Pilgrimage was indeed an enjoyable and profitable experience.

FRESHMEN

Class Officers

President—Jerry Sibley

Vice President—Rick Kell

Secretary—Joan Beiter

Treasurer—Carolyn Woodruff

The Freshman Class is the largest in the school with 268 members. Their problems have been many, but by profiting from their varied experiences and by observing their upperclassmen, they have acquired the self-confidence and maturity necessary to climb that four-rung ladder to graduation.

Charles Hall proves that no obstacle is too great in his quest for knowledge. He'd climb the highest mountain, if necessary.

Say, that's quite a collection you have there, Kathy McQuigg. What, no females?

I just don't know where it could be. These were the words spoken by Steve Thorn and Rodney Randall. Those books do have a way of hiding.

Chow time for these freshmen girls. We didn't know it was such a serious matter. Could it be that most of them are busy counting calories?

FRESHMEN TAKE ON A NEW CHALLENGE

What do you think? Is Richard Crowley licking his lips or just concentrating on his job of keeping the cafeteria clean?

We don't know how it happens, but the ability to carry books seems to diminish with size. Don Sowins, couldn't you lend a hand to Ted Gayson?

Pam Rauch learned during her freshman year just how handy the corridor phone can be. We're afraid you have a few eavesdroppers, Pam.

Coleman, J. Wieland, S. Neuman, Mr. J. P. Shadrach.

Democracy and youth go hand and hand in the Student Council. A working system of student body government has been established whose duties range from keeping the book store to encouraging school spirit.

A forum for the discussion of school problems, the Student Council consists of four boys and girls elected from each class.

To begin the year's activities was the Fall Mixer. For the first time in the history of the school, a Homecoming Weekend was celebrated. The Christmas dance and the Spring Swing gave the students evenings to remember. Dress-Up Day gave that new look to the school. Project Citizenship was the slogan to remember.

IN THE RESPONSIBILITY OF LEADERSHIP AND SERVICE

Entertaining at auditorium programs, pep rallies, and football and basketball intermissions, the Hazelwood Band was a familiar group this year.

Guided by Mr. Salvatore Piazza, this group sent a sextet to the Washington University Music Festival and was represented in the Christmas program by a brass quartet.

The 1959-60 Band had the distinction of being the first to play the new fight song.

Ron Jacobsmeyer, Melvin Lange, Bob Helton, Bill Van Winkle, and Jim Thomas make fine music in the Fifth Hour Ensemble.

Three part harmony is provided by Pamela Lofting, Charles Figura, and Ron Jacobsmeyer.

CHRISTMAS CAROLS AND PAGEANT

Through the combined efforts of the members of the Fine Arts Department, the traditional Christmas story was told in song and pantomime for students, faculty members, and parents. The choral group, under the direction of Mr. William Lewis, the dramatics and speech classes with Mrs. Mary K. Rymè, instructor, and the art classes, supervised by Mrs. Nancy McCall, set the proper mood for the yuletide season.

The Robed Choir, with Mr. Lewis at the organ, blend their voices in the glorious strains of "Silent Night."

FOOTBALL, PARADE, DANCE, BONFIRE PROVIDE THRILLING HOMECOMING

A new school tradition was inaugurated this year with the Homecoming weekend, October 9-10. The Homecoming celebration started Friday with blasts of color when Black and Gold Day was declared. A bonfire in the evening inspired thrilling cheers, snake dances, and singing. Saturday, the day of the big game, started with a gala parade of decorated cars. Then came the thrilling football game with Berkeley. The Victory Dance climaxed the weekend activities. The Homecoming weekend was considered one of the most outstanding events in the school history with more than 2000 students and friends attending.

Although rain muddied the field and soaked the spectators, spirits were not dampened as the fans watched the Hawks defeat Berkeley 33-13.

Much work and enthusiasm went into the decoration of the cars which formed the Homecoming Parade. Pictured here is a prize winner, Jim Gilbert, with Sally Harding and Bill Hilliard.

Under sky illuminated by the bonfire which preceded the parade and game, students and faculty cheered as the Berkeley Bulldog was burned at the stake.

The school band provided thrilling and spirited music for our Homecoming Parade and football game. Players are Mike Krenski, Jerry Ryan, Charles Figura, Ray Wolff, Jeff Ploudre, and David Hill.

WHITE CHRISTMAS BALL HIGH

With a gigantic Christmas tree, candlelit tables, flowing pale blue and white streamers and dancing couples, the annual Student Council Christmas Dance was held December 18, 1959. Festive blue and white balloons covered the floor of the stage with a large eight-point star suspended over the throne, a black iron love seat.

Highlighting the dance was the crowning of the new queen and king, Joan Driemeier and Kenneth Byrd, by the retiring king and queen, Larry Chain and Mrs. Jerry Ryan, the former Patricia Ross.

Admission donations to the dance were sent to Dr. Thomas Dooley to help further his work in Laos.

SENIORS COMBINE SUSPENSE AND HUMOR IN

"ARSENIC AND OLD LACE"

Bodies all over the place! Moe Laufer, as Dr. Einstein, removes body of Mr. Spanalzo (Don Crites) for a final resting place in the cellar.

Played by Ken Byrd, Teddy Brewster, under the impression that he is Teddy Roosevelt, summons his officers to a cabinet meeting.

That elderberry wine! The two spinsters, Emilee Smith and Joan Driemeier, suddenly remember its potency as they frantically try to prevent their nephew (Charles Shinpock) from drinking the concoction.

The maid (Lee Small) tempts Rose (Karen Brown) and Emily (Eunice Evans) with a box of chocolates which Rose hopes has been sent to her.

Kindly, understanding grandfather (Jim Sorrell) comforts the youngsters who have learned that they will leave their beloved St. Louis.

Rose (Karen Brown) gives John (Bob Shanks) a resounding slap that should have warned him that this beautiful young woman puts loyalty to her family above everything else.

OCEAN DEPTHS SCENE OF "AQUA FANTASY"

The Junior-Senior Prom held May 14, 1960, highlighted the Hazelwood social season. An annual event, the Junior Class entertains the Senior Class, members of the faculty, and the administrators at a formal dance and buffet supper. The king and queen, juniors, are selected by their classmates. Their identities are not revealed until a few moments before the coronation.

FINE ARTS FESTIVAL AND CONCERT SALUTES SPRING

With approximately 700 guests attending and more than 300 students participating, the Fine Arts Festival and Spring Concert demonstrated that art is a part of all our school activities. The gymnasium pictured above was a scene of artistic creativity, the result of many hours of collaboration between all the departments in the school. A variety of talents from the science exhibit (left), a mosaic table designed and constructed in the art classes (below), to the "Gandy Dancers" (lower left) were displayed to an appreciative audience.

WE HAVE OUR LIGHTER MOMENTS, TOO!

They really are not lying down on the job. Diane Hessler, Terry Stratmann, and George Krudwig prepare for Art Festival.

Ray Crain is congratulated by memory expert during brain-teaser assembly.

INSIDE HAZELWOOD

During the past year improvement has been made in educational attitudes, moral values, school spirit, manners, and dress. A before and after picture could graphically illustrate these changes. It is hoped that the 1960 Torch has captured and reflected the new personality which is uniquely Hazlewood.
